

BARBARA S. GINSBERG

barbaraginsberg.com/contact

EXPERIENCE

Volunteer, 1991 – Present

Board Memberships

- Mohonk Preserve (Gardiner, NY; 2019 – present): The state's largest nonprofit nature preserve.
- Hearts of Gold (New York City; 2013 – 2018): Nonprofit organization working to break the cycle of homelessness among mothers and their children in the city's shelter system.

Pace Women's Justice Center (White Plains, NY; 2009 – 2012)

Served as pro-bono attorney representing low-income victims and survivors of domestic abuse in connection with uncontested divorces and the modification of maintenance and custody arrangements.

BJ/SPSA Homeless Shelter (New York City)

- 2007 – 2010, Food Donor Coordinator: Maintained and managed roster of volunteers who provided dinner daily to guests of shelter (run jointly by Congregation B'nai Jeshurun and the Church of St. Paul & St. Andrew).
- 2000 – 2007, Set-up Volunteer: Readied cots, greeted guests, served dinner, ate with guests, did after-dinner clean-up.

General

- Presidential campaign of Barack Obama (2008): Voting rights attorney in Florida; fundraising; Jewish outreach; telephone and email support; pavement-pounder.
- Sons' schools (New York City): Served in areas of community development and parent-to-parent mentoring.

Attorney, Intellectual Property Law and Entertainment Law, 1981 – 1991

New York City

Barbara S. Ginsberg, Attorney at Law (1988 – 1991)

Practiced solo in fields of copyright and entertainment law while pursuing acting career.

Franklin, Weinrib, Rudell & Vassallo, P.C. (1985 – 1988)

Negotiated and drafted agreements in fields of film, television, theater, music and intellectual property.

Cowan, Liebowitz & Latman, P.C. (1981 – 1985, half part-time)

Litigation and contract work related to intellectual property; co-wrote copyright column of the New York Law Journal. (1981 – 1983: worked part-time while pursuing acting career.)

Director of Alumni Relations, NYU School of Law, 1980 – 1981 (academic year)

New York City

EDUCATION

Maslow Family Creative Writing Program at Wilkes University

M.A., 2024

New York University School of Law

J.D., 1980

Binghamton University

B.A. with Honors, 1977

ATTORNEY ADMISSIONS: New York State, First Department, March 1981